

MACARTHUR MEMORIAL 2018 EVENT SCHEDULE

Screening: The Negro Soldier (1944)*

February 10, 2:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

Produced by the U.S. Army in 1944, this historic documentary highlights the service and sacrifice of African Americans from the Revolutionary War to World War II.

Book Talk and Signing: *Bataan Survivor

April 12, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

Dr. Frank A. Blazich, curator of Modern Military History at the Smithsonian's National Museum of American history will discuss the memoir of Bataan survivor, Col. David L. Hardee.

World War I Symposium: The Forging of America's Leaders*

May 19, 9:30 A.M. – 3:30 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

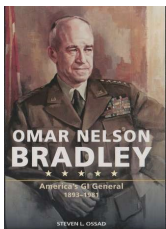

World War I was a proving ground for many of America's leaders during World War II. In a one-day symposium, the MacArthur Memorial will highlight the World War I experiences of Harry S. Truman, George C. Marshall, Douglas MacArthur and Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Screening: *The Millionaires Unit

August 9, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

In partnership with the Virginia Beach Aviation Museum, the MacArthur Memorial will screen The Millionaires Unit—the story of a group of Yale students who became the first to fly for the United States in World War I.

Book Talk/Signing: Omar Nelson Bradley: America's GI General

September 12, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

Military historian Steve Ossad will speak about General Omar Bradley—the last 5-star general in the Army's history. (No registration required)

MACARTHUR MEMORIAL 2018 EVENT SCHEDULE

Screening: The Negro Soldier (1944)*

February 10, 2:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

Produced by the U.S. Army in 1944, this historic documentary highlights the service and sacrifice of African Americans from the Revolutionary War to World War II.

Book Talk and Signing: *Bataan Survivor

April 12, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

Dr. Frank A. Blazich, curator of Modern Military History at the Smithsonian's National Museum of American history will discuss the memoir of Bataan survivor, Col. David L. Hardee.

World War I Symposium: The Forging of America's Leaders*

May 19, 9:30 A.M. – 3:30 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

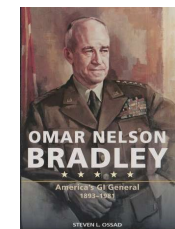

World War I was a proving ground for many of America's leaders during World War II. In a one-day symposium, the MacArthur Memorial will highlight the World War I experiences of Harry S. Truman, George C. Marshall, Douglas MacArthur and Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Screening: *The Millionaires Unit

August 9, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

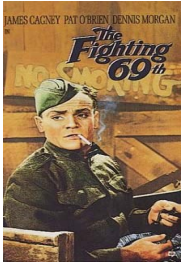

In partnership with the Virginia Beach Aviation Museum, the MacArthur Memorial will screen The Millionaires Unit—the story of a group of Yale students who became the first to fly for the United States in World War I.

Book Talk/Signing: Omar Nelson Bradley: America's GI General

September 12, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

Military historian Steve Ossad will speak about General Omar Bradley—the last 5-star general in the Army's history. (No registration required)

Screening: *The Fighting 69th

September 13, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

This classic film tells the story of the "Fighting 69th" - a regiment of mostly New York-Irish soldiers that was incorporated into the 42nd "Rainbow" Division in World War I.

Screening: *The Fighting 69th

September 13, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

This classic film tells the story of the "Fighting 69th" - a regiment of mostly New York-Irish soldiers that was incorporated into the 42nd "Rainbow" Division in World War I.

Screening: *Sergeant York

October 4, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

To mark the 100th Anniversary of Alvin York's heroism in the Meuse Argonne Forest, the MacArthur Memorial will screen the iconic 1941 film that tells the story of York's transformation from conscientious objector to war hero.

Screening: *Sergeant York

October 4, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

To mark the 100th Anniversary of Alvin York's heroism in the Meuse Argonne Forest, the MacArthur Memorial will screen the iconic 1941 film that tells the story of York's transformation from conscientious objector to war hero.

1918

World War I Symposium: 1918—Americans in Battle*

October 6, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

Focusing on the year of 1918, four World War I experts will examine America's role in the war and gauge the impact of American troops in battle.

1918

World War I Symposium: 1918—Americans in Battle*

October 6, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

Focusing on the year of 1918, four World War I experts will examine America's role in the war and gauge the impact of American troops in battle.

The Monuments Men

October 10, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

In partnership with the Norfolk Historical Society, MacArthur Memorial Education Manager Amanda Williams will discuss the U.S. Army's effort to protect the cultural heritage of Europe during World War II.

The Monuments Men

October 10, 7:00 P.M. MacArthur Memorial Visitors Center

In partnership with the Norfolk Historical Society, MacArthur Memorial Education Manager Amanda Williams will discuss the U.S. Army's effort to protect the cultural heritage of Europe during World War II.

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE.

*REGISTRATION REQUESTED. TO REGISTER, PLEASE VISIT WWW.MACARTHURMEMORIAL.ORG OR CALL 757.441.2965

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE.

*REGISTRATION REQUESTED. TO REGISTER, PLEASE VISIT WWW.MACARTHURMEMORIAL.ORG OR CALL 757.441.2965